

ed.
ell, here is a dime.

Seasonal gentlemanly but at the same time engaged in some her and were fast—Jude's.

in Working.

mate) —Well Jack,

What are you

engaged by

tion like's.

of our "What

" the shopkeep

And with that

gentle in Maria

...bought was a
...and the shopman
...And with their
...for the ex-
...angrily replied:
...ating to the head-
...y nose, you block-

... said the only
... office. "I have
... of fine cigars.
... to keep a secret,
... boxes of perfectos
... through the cus-
... which I can sell

Ferlook.
 "Ye yen have been
 additions to Dick's
 must teased for first
 another, until I
 can't blame a
 look nice.
 (other room)--Why
 fuss about want-
 er old ones look

ated to let 'em
t give me any of
ents.—Good News.
Little Cisher?
—You remember I
ad a salary of $10.
arry you.
(hopelessly).
ow much is it now,
a thousand (more

DON'T suppose the y worth bothering
 per's Bazar.
 THAN ONE.

oh Inb, Clindy, what
 ah?
 doin'? Why, dere
 hell in de house ter

is naturally has for Bazar.

1864.
or boarding house
ly; exad
tion of
had.

—Yonkers Gazette.

glen Free.

opped in, mam, to
or indigestion, dys-
alligments, myo-

What is the cure?
 Plain food, and give
 eatible dishes to the
 or, mum. — N. Y.

—And then—she—
said she considered
these things to think

an apology for having a, Bilal" rejoined pettily. "I thought I was myself to a rich woman."

—

Choice.

y and Sappy are en-

She has been hungry for years. Has she wasted so much er," said Tom.

thoughtful. After a
he asked: "Why do
er?"
ader," he said, slow-

is Shakespeare a Shakespeare? Let Shakespeare. Seems to
ired from business
of the fire, and I
now.—Judge.

